

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY

XXXX XXXXXX BATTALION
XXXXXXXX AVE, BUILDING XXX
FORT STEWART, GA 31314

OFFICE SYMBOL

XX Date XXXX

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Request Authorization to Store Ammo in Unit Arms Room

1. BUILDING # (physical location) _____
2. Unit: _____
3. Date request submitted: _____
4. Purpose of ammo (indicate which): Training_____, Operational load _____
5. Period of time: (See line 12) From: _____ To: _____
6. Point of Contact : _____
7. Telephone number: _____
8. The following is requested to be stored:

| DODIC | LOT Number | Total QTY(# of rounds) | HC/Division(from Yellow book) | TOTAL NEW( = total QTY x NEW of one)(Show in "lbs") |
|--------------|-------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
|              |                   |                                   |                                          |                                                                    |
|              |                   |                                   |                                          |                                                                    |
|              |                   |                                   |                                          |                                                                    |

9. Unit will not store more than 100 lbs NEW of HD 1.3, if HD 1.4 is present then the NEW will be combined. The combined total of HD 1.3 and HD 1.4 cannot exceed 100 lbs. (DA PAM 385-64)

10. There is no NEW limit of HC/D 1.4 ammunition in an arms room.

11. A limited quantity, not to exceed operational necessity, of HC/D 1.3 and HC/D 1.4 ceremonial ammunition (such as, 75 mm blank, 105 mm blank) may be stored in an arms room. Total quantity cannot exceed 100 lbs NEW. (DA PAM 385-64)

12. Training ammo storage in arms room(s) will not exceed 10 calendar days. (ASP-EXT-SOP)

13. Unit will exhaust all options for storage of training ammo prior to use of arms room(s). (DA PAM 385-64)

14. CS Capsules storage requires the proper display of chemical symbol 1, set 2 (yellow man). (DA PAM 385-64)

**Note: Armorer will have protective mask on hand and building occupants will be informed of CS presence.

OFFICE SYMBOL

SUBJECT: Request Authorization to Store Ammo in Unit Arms Room

15. Ammunition will remain properly packaged. (DA PAM 385-64)
16. Proper fire/chemical symbol(s) will be displayed on building. (DA PAM 385-64).
Note: Symbols must be removed or covered when all ammo / CS is removed from arms room(s).
17. Ammunition will not be stored on vehicles in a motor pool.
18. Ammunition storage not to exceed 30 days or the suspense on the issued DA Form 581 (Request for Issue and Turn-In of Ammunition), whichever is shorter.
19. Residue not held more than five (5) days. ((DA Pam 710-2-1, para 11-16c (1))
20. Security requirements of AR 190-11 will be met.
21. This request will be faxed or emailed to the appropriate offices below:
  - a. Safety @ 571-801-2058/50      usarmy.stewart.usag.list.gso-all@army.mil
  - b. QASAS @ 571-801-0564      kenneth.o.harwell.civ@army.mil
  - c. QASAS @ 571-801-0563      jennifer.l.kitchers.civ@army.mil
  - d. 911 Operations Manager      usarmy.stewart.usag.mbx.des-911@army.mil
22. These requirements are subject to change as directed by DA, FORSCOM and/or Safety.
23. Signature below indicates all requirements will be met.

UNIT CMDR
RANK, BRANCH
Commanding